

<https://www.linkedin.com/jobs/search/?currentJobId=4120708210>

Technical Product Manager m/w/d in Munich/Cham

YOUR TASKS

You drive the development of innovative cloud-native software products in the area of workforce management as an interface between external and internal stakeholders (e.g. customer, sales team, customer services team and development) You ensure technical feasibility and intuitive operation in collaboration with our UX/UI team with our 'mobile first' approach, we focus on app design and development You manage the product backlog and prioritize the various requirements You use requirement engineering and create specifications for new features including user tests and user stories You plan the further development of products and releases and create and communicate the strategic product roadmaps You prepare internal product training courses for Sales and the Customer Service team and conduct these together with your team colleagues You continuously optimize product management processes and ensure efficiency and effectiveness

YOUR CAPABILITIES

Completed technical university degree, e.g. (business or media) computer science Several years of professional experience in B2B software product management and enthusiasm for innovative technologies Knowledge of JIRA/Confluence You are curious and reliable, have strong analytical skills, initiative and a sound technical background. You attract the attention of the audience with your presentation skills An understanding of the protection of personal data in the context of the GDPR and IT security mechanisms will help you in your role Customer and user-orientated thinking, good comprehension skills and a high level of implementation expertise Very good written and spoken German and English skills

WE OFFER

Onboarding: Newbies-Day in Munich, 5-week onboarding with training sessions and workshops, Buddy-program Benefits: Participation in company success, employee stock program, Germany-wide job ticket, Sodexo vouchers, Corporate Benefits Company culture: Flexibility with Hybrid Work (Work from Home/Work from EU), 30 days of vacation, Diversity & Inclusion Team, (virtual) events for employees (e.g., Summer camps), Barista at the Headquarter, Volunteer Day Career and Development: Career model with Expert- & Leadership Track, ATOSS Academy, LinkedIn Learning Health: Check-ups, health initiatives, Gympass, company doctor Security & Stability: Listed on the stock market: SDax & TecDax, over 30% EBIT margin, Scale-up, 18 years of record revenue and results, visibility, future product